Renewal, Reflection + Joy

The year is flying by, and we still have much to look forward to! One upcoming holiday that we love to celebrate at Makumu Private Game Lodge is Easter.

Easter is celebrated in various ways by different cultures all around the world, with many associating it with Easter eggs or providing an opportunity for families and communities to come together in ancient traditions that have been passed down for generations.

But above all, it's a time for everyone to connect with each other and share in the joy and hope of the holiday. This is where you might consider taking a family trip out into the bush for an authentic, off-the-beaten-path safari experience.

Easter Weekend Itinerary

So, what is our special way of celebrating this holiday, besides the excitement of going on game drives and indulging in some yummy African dishes!

Well...

Saturday – Easter Egg Painting

The Saturday of Easter Weekend, we delight guests in an Egg Painting activity while enjoying an ice cold glass of bubbles. This is one of our traditions that we do every year at Makumu, and our guests absolutely love it!

In Christianity, it's believed that eggs were formerly a forbidden food during the Lenten season, so people would paint and decorate them to mark the end of the period of penance and fasting.

Sunday – Easter Egg Fighting

On Easter Sunday, guests partake in a friendly game of Easter Egg Fighting. The rule of this game is played with a partner, one holds a hard-boiled egg and taps the egg of another participant with one's own egg intending to break the others, without breaking one's own. The guest whose egg didn't break wins!

Fun fact - The first Egg Fight happened sometime in the early 1800's and was the result of a dispute between the farmers of Rome Hollow and Peters Hollow. The dispute was centred around who's chickens laid the hardest eggs.

Monday - Easter Family Day

If the weather allows, we'll have a glorious bush breakfast with guests in celebration of Family Day!

Wine Tasting at Makumu

Indulge in a wine tasting experience like no other as you sample some of the finest wines from the South African vineyards. Enjoy tasting while you relax in the serene wilderness of the African bush and under a sky full of twinkling stars.

Wildlife Report

MARCH WILDLIFE REPORT

Even though the cold weather is slowly moving in, we are still lucky with a luscious green bushveld after the big floods in February. The water dams and rivers are still full and flowing strong. Welcome to another update from the Klaserie Private Nature Reserve and Makumu Private Game Lodge, your home away from home.

We love our Guests

"The sightings were absolutely breath taking and intimate. The staff is welcoming, caring and committed to making your stay perfect. The food is delicious. Above and beyond any expectations. It was magical and the perfect memory. Will always remember fondly, both the location, the amazing staff and lodge. The rooms are fabulous, comfortable and well equipped. The views are amazing, the storage space is great and the turn down service is incredibly professional. Amenities are numerous, including plugging to charge phones and cameras. Absolutely nothing negative at all."
